

CARIBBEAN ISLANDS

CITIZENSHIP BY INVESTMENT PROGRAMS IN
ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA, DOMINICA, GRENADA,
SAINT KITTS AND NEVIS

The islands of Antigua and Barbuda, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Grenada and Dominica, are all situated in the Caribbean. Though distinct in culture and history, they all offer a number of compelling common benefits.

All four destinations have powerful passports, and offer citizenship directly, rather than through temporary or permanent residence schemes. This means citizenship by investment is possible without needing to reside in the locality. Their economies are open and well-connected to global markets. Tax structures are favourable, whilst the region's proximity to the United States of America and Canada is also a major draw.

A temperate tropical climate and the Caribbean's well-known affinity for music and performing arts are added attractions. Relaxed yet sophisticated, the Caribbean islands offer second citizenships that are fast, relatively easy and accessible.
